NOT VOTING—1

Applegate

¶1.6 The roll having been completed, the Clerk announced that the tellers had reached an agreement that the total number of votes cast were 431 of which number Mr. THOMAS S. FOLEY received 255; Mr. ROBERT H. MICHEL received 174. Mr. THOMAS S. FOLEY, of Washington, having received 255 votes, being the largest number cast for any Member-elect and a majority of the whole number of votes cast, was declared by the Clerk to have been duly elected Speaker of the House of Representatives for the 103rd Congress.

The Clerk announced the appointment of Mr. GEPHARDT, Mr. MICHEL, Mr. BONIOR, Mr. GINGRICH, Mr. ARMEY, Mr. DICKS, and Ms. DUNN to escort the Speaker to the Chair.

The SPEAKER was escorted to the Chair by said committee and, following an introduction by Mr. MICHEL, addressed the House as follows:

"Thank you very much, BOB MICHEL, and my thanks to this House for the honor of being allowed again to be Speaker in this coming Congress.

"All of us, I think, share a sense of great respect for the distinguished Republican leader, BOB MICHEL, who has throughout his entire service reflected the best traditions of this House and has provided an example of patriotism, decency, and reasonable leadership in every year in which he has served. I deem it one of the great honors of my opportunity to be Speaker to serve again with the distinguished Republican leader, BOB MICHEL.

"My first thoughts are those of gratitude and appreciation to the 600,000 constituents from eastern Washington who I have the honor to represent.

"I think all of us share the view that the greatest honor that can come to us in our political careers and lifetimes is the opportunity to serve our fellow citizens as Representatives in Congress, the title we proudly hold in this body.

"That does not diminish my great appreciation to each of you, to my wife, and to all who have served with me over these years and made it possible for me to stand before you today.

"We are beginning a historic new Congress. As BOB MICHEL noted, we have a greater percentage of new Members than at any time since the end of World War II; 25 percent of our number are new to this body. They represent a better and more reflective representation of this country, of the peoples across this great Nation, than any other Congress in our history.

"We can initially be very proud of that; but we also have a concern, all of us, I think, that the American people have signaled their impatience with the pace of reform and change that they expect this Congress to advance in the coming years. There is an impatience that we have not moved fast enough or effectively enough to deal with the national deficit; to deal with the fairness, advancement and growth of our economic system; to deal with the problems of our health system that still denies to millions of Americans adequate and affordable care, to provide educational opportunity for all of our citizens, to build our physical infrastructure, to reduce crime; and to attack the problems of drugs and other social ills.

"This Congress will have a great challenge and a great opportunity in seeking to restore the confidence of the American people in the legislative branch and in its association with the new President, Bill Clinton.

"We will have a new President but may I say with honesty and sincerity that I had and have great respect for the President of the United States, George Bush, and that I have sought in the time I have been Speaker to work with the President to advance the interests of our Nation.

"As he leaves office, I think President Bush carries with him the great respect and gratitude of the American people.

"As we welcome the new President, who has gone before the country with an agenda of change, with a program of dealing with the problems and ills of the Nation, we owe him, all of us, our best efforts and support.

"During a meeting not too long ago with the joint bipartisan leadership, President-elect Clinton said that he wished to be a good partner with the Congress in dealing with all of the challenges that lay ahead. I responded, on your behalf, that the Congress would be a good partner with him in all of these efforts.

"We have an opportunity, we have a challenge, and we are under the close scrutiny of the American people who, 2 years hence, will have their own opportunity to make their judgment on each one of us and on the work of this Congress.

"Above me inscribed on the wall of this Chamber are the words of Webster. They may not be easy to read from where you are sitting, so permit me to read them to you.

"The inscription says:

Let us develop the resources of our land, call forth its great powers, build up its institutions, promote all of its great interests, and see whether we also, in our time and generation, may not perform something worthy to be remembered.

"Let us, all of us, pledge today that when this Congress comes to an end 2 years hence we may all proudly say that we have done something worthy to be remembered."

¶1.7 OATH OF OFFICE—SPEAKER

At the request of the Speaker the oath of office was then administered to him by Mr. WHITTEN, dean of the House.

¶1.8 OATH OF OFFICE—MEMBERS-ELECT, DELEGATES-ELECT, RESIDENT COMMISSIONER

The SPEAKER said: "According to precedent, the Chair will swear in all Members of the House at this time. If the Members will rise, the Chair will now administer the oath of office."

 “(c) Paragraph (a) does not prohibit the taking into consideration of—
 “(1) the domicile of an individual with respect to a position under the clerk-hire allowance; or
 “(2) the political affiliation of an individual with respect to a position under the clerk-hire allowance or a position on the staff of a committee or a position under all support offices, except as otherwise stated in the Rules of the House of Representatives.
“procedure
 “3. The procedure for consideration of alleged violations of clause 2 consists of three steps as follows:
 “(a) step I, Counseling and Mediation, as set forth in clause 5;

“(b) step II, Formal Complaint, Hearing, and Review by the Office of Fair Employment Practices, as set forth in clause 6; and
 “(c) step III, Final Review by Review Panel, as set forth in clause 7.
“office of fair employment practices
 “4. There is established an Office of Fair Employment Practices (hereafter in this rule referred to as the “Office”), which shall carry out functions assigned under this rule. The Office shall be located in the District of Columbia.
“step i: counseling and mediation
 “5. A request for counseling shall be made not later than one hundred and eighty days after the alleged violation and may be oral or written, at the option of the individual. The period for counseling is thirty days, unless the employee and the Office agree to reduce the time period. The Office may not notify the employing authority of the counseling before the beginning of mediation or the filing of a formal complaint, whichever occurs first.
 “(b) If, after counseling, the individual desires to proceed, the Office shall attempt to resolve the alleged violation through mediation between the individual and the employing authority.
“step ii: formal complaint, hearing, and review by the office of fair employment practices
 “6. (a) Not later than thirty days after the end of the counseling period, the individual may file a formal complaint with the Office. Not later than ten days after filing the formal complaint, the individual may file with the Office a written request for a hearing on the complaint.
 “(b) The hearing shall be conducted—
 “(1) not later than forty days after filing of the written request under paragraph (a);
 “(2) on the record by a Hearing Officer of the Office appointed under the procedures set forth in clause 4; and

 “(c) Not later than thirty days after the hearing, the Office shall issue a written decision to the parties. The decision shall clearly state the issues raised by the complaint, and shall contain a determination as to whether a violation of clause 2 has occurred.
“step iii: final review by review panel
 “7. (a) In General. Not later than twenty days after issuance of the decision under clause 6, any party may seek formal review of the decision by filing a written request with the Office. The formal review shall be conducted by a panel constituted at the beginning of each Congress and composed of—
 “(1) two elected officers or employees of the House of Representatives, appointed by the Speaker;
 “(2) two employees of the House of Representatives appointed by the minority leader of the House of Representatives;
 “(3) two members of the Committee on House Administration (one of whom shall be appointed as chairman of the panel), appointed by the Chairman of that Committee; and “(4) two members of the Committee on House Administration, appointed by the ranking minority party member of that Committee.

If any member of the panel withdraws from a particular review, the appointing authority for such member shall appoint another officer, employee, or Member of the House of Representatives, as the case may be, to be a temporary member of the panel for purposes of that review only.

"(b) The review under this clause shall consist of a hearing (conducted in the manner described in clause 6(b)(3)), if such hearing is considered necessary by the panel, and an examination of the record, together with any statements or other documents the panel deems appropriate. A tie vote by the panel is an affirmation of the decision of the Office. The panel shall complete the review and submit a written decision to the parties and to the Committee on House Administration not later than sixty days after filing of the request under paragraph (a), except that when the House has adjourned sine die, in which case an extension of up to sixty additional days is authorized.
